EAHSA's Values

EAHSA's Guiding Principles provide the basis for the way the senior living industry has to develop in order to keep the industry viable, sustainable and responsive to future demands and needed developments. The headlines of the Five Guiding Principles are:

- Preserving dignity
- Nurturing spirits in life
- Comforting in partnership
- Encouraging diversity in housing and services
- Adopting a care-focused and modern approach

The Mission of EAHSA is to:

- voice and promote the interest of the providers for the ageing sector;
- establish EAHSA as an active partner in the European political scene.

EAHSA does not stand alone in pursuing its Vision, Values and Mission. It is affiliated with IAHSA, the International Association of Homes and Services for the Ageing, which is a global network with its offices in Washington DC. EAHSA is also a full member of the AGE Platform and the European Housing Forum (EHF). In addition, it cooperates also with other European level and national stakeholders.

EAHSA

The European Association of Homes and Services for the Ageing (EAHSA) is the European integral platform of the providers of housing, services and care for the ageing sector. Members represent all types of organisations and individuals active for seniors and older persons and all types of ownership including for profit, not-for-profit and governmental.

The Vision of EAHSA is to:

- improve the quality of life for older persons;
- support its members in making each day a better day for their clients by providing high quality housing, services and care;
- establishing good contacts with EU institutions like the relevant Directorates General of the Commission, the Council and the Parliament and its Inter-group on Ageing;
- becoming a key network for the providers for the ageing sector.
